

2014 FAA Worldwide Airport Technology Transfer Conference
Innovations
in Airport Safety and Pavement Technologies

Please place me on the mailing list to receive registration information for the 2014 FAA WORLDWIDE AIRPORT TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER CONFERENCE.

Mail or fax this form to:
Federal Aviation Administration
Airport Technology R&D Branch, ANG-E26
Atlantic City International Airport, NJ 08405
USA

Fax: 609-485-4845
E-mail: att2014@faa.gov

OR
Visit the conference web site at:
www.airporttech.tc.faa.gov/conference

Name _____

Title _____

Organization _____

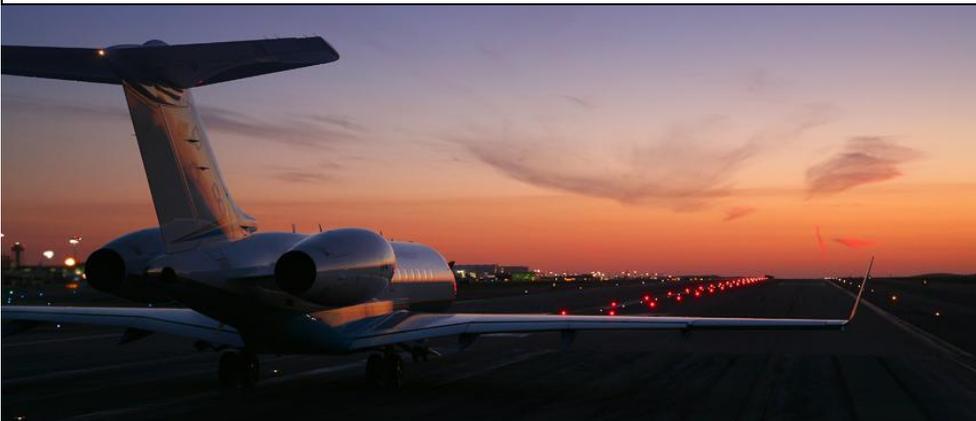

Address _____

City _____

State/Country _____ Postal Code _____

Telephone _____ Fax _____

E-Mail _____

CALL FOR PAPERS AND PRESENTATIONS

2014 FAA Worldwide Airport
Technology Transfer Conference
Innovations in Airport Safety and Pavement Technologies

August 5-7, 2014
Stockton Seaview Hotel
Galloway (Oceanville), New Jersey, USA

Sponsored by:

Federal Aviation Administration
The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey

CALL FOR PAPERS AND PRESENTATIONS

SCOPE

This Technology Transfer Conference provides a unique opportunity for airport operators, aviation consultants, construction contractors, research engineers or academic researchers to interact and exchange information. Papers and presentations are sought for all technical areas in airport safety and pavement technology including:

Airport Pavement

- Design and Evaluation
- Pavement Management
- Full-Scale and Accelerated Pavement Testing
- Construction Materials and Methods
- Case Studies

Airport Safety

- Aircraft Rescue and Firefighting (ARFF)
- Runway Surface Technology
- Visual Guidance
- Airport Wildlife Hazards
- Runway Incursion Reduction
- Planning/Design for New Large Aircraft

ABSTRACTS

Abstracts for papers and presentations should be limited to no more than 300 words, outlining the objectives, technical approaches used, and results achieved. The Conference Technical Committee will review all abstracts submitted. Invitation notices will be sent out according to the conference schedule.

SUBMISSION OF ABSTRACTS

Abstracts may be submitted online at:
www.airporttech.tc.faa.gov/conference

Abstracts may also be submitted by mail to:
FAA/William J. Hughes Technical Center
Airport Technology R&D Branch, ANG-E26
Atlantic City International Airport, NJ 08405 U.S.A.
Attention: Dr. David R. Brill (Airport Pavement topics)
or Mr. Robert Bassey (Airport Safety topics)
Fax: (609) 485-4845

REVIEW

All papers and presentations submitted will be peer-reviewed by the Conference Technical Committee. Papers and presentations accepted will be published in the conference proceedings on CD-ROM.

CONFERENCE VENUE

The conference will be held at the Stockton Seaview Hotel and Golf Club in Galloway Township, New Jersey, USA. The hotel is approximately 12 miles from Atlantic City and convenient to many of the attractions on the Jersey Shore. For more information, visit www.stocktonseaview.com.

SUBMISSION SCHEDULE

Deadline for Submission of Abstracts	17 February 2014
Invitation to Prepare Draft Paper/Presentation	17 March 2014
Submission of Draft Paper/Presentation	28 April 2014
Submission of Final Paper/Presentation	9 June 2014

